

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES FROM MANY SECTIONS OF THE CITY

Mrs. J. H. McCoon
and Her Daughters
to Join Seagoers

Miss Margaret Power Also Going Abroad—Society Opening Country Places.

TRAVEL to Europe of men and women of society is increasing daily. Each outgoing steamship last week sailed with its cabin filled with tourists, who will spend the summer visiting places of interest. Many others have booked passage for this week. Among them will be Mrs. James Henry McCoon and her two daughters, the Misses Edith and Carolyn Frances McCoon, who will sail on Saturday. They will be abroad until October and will travel in England, France and Switzerland.

Miss Margaret Power of 1041 Fifth avenue is arranging to start for Europe on June 26. She will be accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Peter Larson.

Mrs. Stuart Hanna and the Misses Hanna of 620 Park avenue sailed on Wednesday for France. They will remain abroad until October.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall and their daughter, Miss Eleanor Marshall, will sail for Europe the latter part of this month. They will go to England to visit another daughter, Miss Elizabeth Marshall, who is an Oxford student.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady, who are at their place at Sands Point, L. I., will sail soon for Europe for the summer.

Mrs. Charles Lagemann of 1 West Seventy-second street, accompanied by his son, Mr. Walter Lagemann, sailed Tuesday. They will pass the summer in London and on the Continent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham Miles as usual will pass the summer at their place on Wellesley Island in the Thousand Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Shotwell early this month will go to their place at Oak Island, off Long Island, for the summer.

Mrs. Samuel J. Keyser of 300 Park avenue has gone to Atlantic City, where she will remain until about the middle of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonidas Dennis have returned to New York after a trip around the world, lasting nearly a year. They are stopping at the Hotel Bristol.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wood of 115 East Fifty-third street passed Memorial Day in Stockbridge, Mass. They recently returned from Europe, where they spent several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Womham have closed their residence, 51 East Fifty-eighth street, and gone to their summer place at Rye, N. Y.

Mrs. Esther Huger, daughter of Mrs. Theodore Kees of 122 Madison avenue, will pass part of the summer with her brother, Mr. Daniel E. Huger, who lives in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trenton Harte, who were married on Tuesday, will live at the Hotel Clarendon, where they will be at home after July 1. Mrs. Harte was Miss Renee C. Seligman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Seligman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Langdon Hayden of 185 West Fifty-fifth street will open their cottage on Hayden Island in the St. Lawrence in about a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. James Graham Parsons, who are at Bonnie Brae, their place in Stockbridge, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barnard and Mr. Arthur Lispenard Doremus.

Col. and Mrs. Willis S. Paine of the Hotel Plaza have gone to Briarcliff Lodge for the month of June.

Mrs. William B. Hornblower has leased the Charles H. Wilson villa in Pittsfield, Mass., for the season. She is at present at the Maplewood Hotel, where she takes possession of the Wilson home.

Mrs. Thomas Fenton Taylor and her daughter, Miss Margaret Taylor of 128 East Sixty-seventh street, last week moved to their place on Club Island, in the Thousand Islands.

The Misses Marie and Helen Martin, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin of Davenport, Nebr., who have been in Europe since last fall, sailed for New York yesterday on board the Aquitania. Miss Helen Martin has been at the Plaza Hotel, formerly the Hotel de Ville, where she is traveling through Italy, Germany and France.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Sherman, who were married on May 25 in Grace Church, have returned to the city after their return in the autumn. They will live in Rye, N. Y. Mrs. Sherman was Mrs. Charles G. King and is a sister of Mr. Charles E. Brinley of Philadelphia.

The Misses Frances E. and Emma M. Nash will pass the summer in Pittsfield, Mass., where they have leased Prof. Samuel Fessenden Clarke's house in South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Goodwin of 467 Central Park West, sailed on Tuesday on the Berengaria for England. They will spend the entire summer abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin recently returned from a trip to the City of Mexico, where they have many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Striet of 205 West Fifty-seventh street, are spending two weeks at Hot Springs, and on their return will go to East Hampton, L. I. for the summer.

Mr. Oscar Hugh de Boyedon, the well known sculptor, and Mrs. de Boyedon are among the recent arrivals at Biarritz, where they are at the Villa Velleda. In the latter place, Mrs. de Boyedon is the property of Bob Pasha but now owned by Mrs. Yves Nat, who was Miss Sutherland of Winchester, Ont. Mr. and Mrs. de Boyedon who have been abroad the greater part of three years have a home near Peekskill, N. Y. Mrs. de Boyedon before her marriage in 1912 to Mr. de Boyedon was the widow of T. Luis de Onativia.

Mr. Alfredo Castello has gone to Missouri to spend the summer with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley, Lord of 270 Park avenue, have gone to Briarcliff Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Richmond

Two Brides and Young Woman Soon to Be Married

MRS. WALTER BRETT SMITH, FORMERLY MISS JESSIE BOYD AND A DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. JAMES BOYD OF 225 WEST SEVENTY-FIFTH STREET.

MRS. CHARLES E. LOIZEAUX, WIFE OF THE MAYOR OF PLAINFIELD, N. J. SHE WAS MISS BERTHA RANDOLPH MILLAR, DAUGHTER OF COL. AND MRS. SAMUEL ROLFE MILLAR OF FRONT ROYAL, VA.

MISS HELEN H. D. MAYER, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. MORRIS MAYER OF 323 WEST 106 STREET, TO BE MARRIED JUNE 27 TO MR. DAVID JAMES MARTIN.

De Wolfe Brinkley of 210 Riverside Drive and their daughter, Miss Doris M. Brinkley, also are there.

Mrs. John Edward Lancaster of 300 Park avenue will sail on Tuesday by the Mauretania, to spend the summer abroad.

Mrs. John A. Manson of 8 East Sixty-second street sailed on Thursday for Italy, where she will spend the summer. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Margaret Sloan Manson, and her brother, Mr. Parker Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Drayton of Philadelphia were at the Hotel Loraine for several days last week. Among others there were Mrs. Henry S. Chase, Mrs. Evans, at her cottage in Hot Springs, Me., Mrs. Ferdinand Jelke, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. C. C. Park, of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Mrs. Allan Pinkerton, who came from her country place on Long Island. Mrs. Julius W. MacMurray, who was returned to her home in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Downey, as usual, will spend the summer on Wellesley Island in the St. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic P. Bronson have returned from Hot Springs, where they passed their honeymoon, and in a few days will sail for Europe, where they will spend the summer. Mrs. Bronson was Miss Helen Grace Van Wyck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hawley Van Wyck.

Mr. and Mrs. Conkey P. Whitehead Jr. visiting his mother, Mrs. Arthur Kelly Evans, at her cottage in Hot Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead were married recently in Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Dewar of the Athorp Apartments, Broadway, and twenty-eighth street, have opened Kee-Nay-Din, their cottage on one of the islands in the St. Lawrence.

Mrs. Josephine D. Sanford and Miss Helen M. Sanford of 530 Riverside Drive have gone to Kittatinny, Delaware Water Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boldt, Jr., and their daughters, the Misses Manella and Louise Boldt, who passed the winter in California, soon will open the Biches, their place in the Thousand Islands.

Mrs. Alma Ellsworth Smathers gave a luncheon recently at the Hotel Plaza for her daughter, Miss Virginia Smathers. Her guests included Misses Priscilla Keyser, Pauline Guye, Miriam Bradley, Josephine Gould, Frances Gibb, Jane Houghaling, Lois McCall, Catherine Wheeler, Helen Heckett, Alice West, Kathryn Jordan, Elizabeth Whiting and O. B. Crum.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. S. Williams, who spent the winter at the Hotel Gotham, sailed recently for Europe. They will pass the summer in Italy. They will return to New York by way of India, China and Japan.

Mrs. Edmund W. Kingsland and her two children have started on their annual trip to Pomeroy, Ohio, to visit her mother. Mrs. Kingsland is prominent in club circles, being one of the directors of the Drama League, is directing.

Mrs. Margaret Hennessy entertained a few friends at dinner on Tuesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Daniel J. Hennessy, 903 Park avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Lancashire and Miss Lila Lancashire have closed their house, 7 East Seventy-fifth street, and gone to their summer place, Graftonwood, at Manchester by the Sea.

Mrs. Gerald Hull Gray and her daughter, Miss Geraldine Gray were among those sailing on Thursday for Europe. They will pass the summer in Italy. Miss Gray's marriage to Mr. Robert T. Livingston will take place in October.

Miss Mildred Burger and her brother, Mr. Edward H. Burger of 84 West End avenue are motoring through northern New York. On their return they will go to Rockaway Park for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bedell H. Harned, who have been at Hot Springs for several weeks, have returned to their New York home. Mrs. Harned's mother, Mrs. S. T. Powell, returned with them.

Mrs. George J. Bernbach and daughter, Miss Florence Louise Bernbach, have come from Denver, Col., to join Mr. Bernbach, who has taken over the management of the inn. Among other new arrivals are Col. George Montgomery, Jefferson C. Grinnalds, secretary of the zoning commission of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Johnston and family of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. G. Burke Johnston of Uniontown, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Hagar, Mrs. Lillie Rosecrans of Boston, and Mrs. Harold Gratin.

Miss Marie Pauley, who has been visiting in Marion, Ind., returned this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strouse spent last week at the Hollywood Hotel, West End, Long Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Elissa C. Tower, who spent the winter at the Ritz-Carlton, have gone to Southampton, L. I., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sheffield, Jr., are at Hot Springs, Va.

A reunion supper was given in the alumni rooms of Packer Institute Thursday night by the class of 1914.

The committal charges were composed of Mrs. Archibald D. McKelge, secretary; Mrs. Schuyler Bergen, Miss Martha McGarvey, Mrs. Earle T. Munkenbeck, Mrs. Harold C. Parsons and Mrs. William Kouwenhoven.

Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Schaffner of 121 Jerusalem street entertained for Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bessert at the Hotel Bessert roof on Tuesday night.

Mrs. E. Clifford Place is the new president of the Urban Club. Vice-presidents for the ensuing year are Mrs. Theodore Hanson, Mrs. Joseph W. Tuttle and Mrs. Edwin G. Warner. Mrs. Fenwick W. Ritchie is the recording secretary. Mrs. Chester Foster is corresponding secretary.

Mrs. K. C. Bates assistant, Mrs. George C. Fischer treasurer, Mrs. Eugene B. Magnus auditor, Mrs. Samuel H. Olmstead member at large and Mrs. Andrew J. Perry secretary.

The new officers of the Women's Club elected at the annual meeting include Mrs. Louis Dean Spier, president; Mrs. Edward H. May, Mrs. Edgar D. Sealy and Mrs. Ferry Getz, vice-presidents; Mrs. George Watson, recording secretary; Miss Wilhelmina Beckus, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. William K. Woodward, treasurer. The new members of the board will be Mrs. Phonor J. Eder, Mrs. John M. McMullen, Mrs. Beatrice E. Eno and Mrs. William P. Saybolt. New chairmen are Mrs. Eder, current readings; Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, philanthropic, and Mrs. E. M. Guyon, music. Committee chairmen include Mrs. Walter S. Mayer, Mrs. Donald G. Clark, Mrs. John J. Sheahan, Mrs. Virgil Miller, Mrs. John A. McFarlan, Mrs. Edgar D. Sealy, Mrs. George Smart, Mrs. L. Galloway and Mrs. Charles H. Scamwell.

Mrs. George J. Bernbach and daughter, Miss Florence Louise Bernbach, have come from Denver, Col., to join Mr. Bernbach, who has taken over the management of the inn. Among other new arrivals are Col. George Montgomery, Jefferson C. Grinnalds, secretary of the zoning commission of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Johnston and family of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. G. Burke Johnston of Uniontown, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Hagar, Mrs. Lillie Rosecrans of Boston, and Mrs. Harold Gratin.

Miss Marie Pauley, who has been visiting in Marion, Ind., returned this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strouse spent last

Long Island Council of Women's Clubs
Has Annual Meeting

Many Brooklyn Delegates Attend the Convention—Notes of the Borough.

THE thirty-fourth annual convention of the Long Island Council of Women's Clubs was held last Friday at the Congregational Church of Patchogue, L. I. Sorosis of Patchogue was the hostess club. Five hundred women were present from almost every town in Long Island. They represented 150 clubs. Women from Brooklyn took a prominent part in the proceedings.

The speakers were Lieut.-Gov. Jeremiah Wood, Dr. W. Warren Giles, Mrs. Eleanor Clarke Slagle, the forum, "Training for Citizenship," was conducted by Mrs. Millard F. Johnson. Mme. Emma Richardson Kuster, musical conductor of Chaminade of Brooklyn, led in the community singing.

Among the guests of honor were Mrs. Walter S. Comly, president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. John Lewis Childs, director of the Federation of Women's Clubs from the Second district; Miss Julia F. Ring, chairman of the Second district; Mrs. Richard M. Chapman, president of the New York City Federation; Mrs. Jeremiah Wood, Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, Mrs. Wilmet Smith and Mrs. A. E. Fraser. Mrs. R. Edison Doolittle of Brooklyn is president of the Long Island Council. Other officers and committee chairmen are Mrs. Laura D. Burroughs, Brooklyn, first vice-president; Mrs. James A. Dugan, Brooklyn, second vice-president; Mrs. Glenn C. Pettit, Rockville Centre, third vice-president; Mrs. May Barrett, Brooklyn, treasurer; Mrs. Emory A. Brown, Brooklyn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Henry Curtis, Jamaica, recording secretary; Mrs. Theodore M. Hardy, Brooklyn, historian, and Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Brooklyn, auditor.

Mrs. W. A. Bell is the Kings county representative; Mrs. Samuel Palmer of Jamaica, Queens representative; Mrs. Ernest M. Strong of Flushing, Nassau county representative; Mrs. W. H. Stewart of Setauket, L. I., Suffolk county representative.

Mrs. Clinton B. Smith, Flushing, is the first executive member; Mrs. George F. Wilder, Queens, L. I., second; Mrs. Wilson W. Thompson, Brooklyn, third.

Mrs. Millard F. Johnson, Brooklyn, is chairman of the forum; Mrs. Joseph L. Ashmead, Richmond Hill, is chairman of the credentials committee; Mrs. George Reichman, Brooklyn, luncheon; Mrs. H. Hull McNeill, Garden City, music; Mrs. Lee M. Raney, Manhattan, membership; Mrs. I. Sherwood Coffin, printing; Mrs. David Porter, program; Mrs. Gertrude J. Corwin, Brooklyn, publicity, and Mrs. Harry C. Palmer, Brooklyn, reception; Mrs. Nellie E. C. Furman, Richmond Hill, resolutions, and Mrs. H. H. Wright, Flushing, ways and means.

Mrs. Mary H. Stackpole is chairman of the department of American citizenship; Mrs. Abigail E. Leonard, Farmingdale, applied education; Mrs. Haven B. Bayles, Brooklyn, art, and Dr. Mary E. Fleckles, Brooklyn, public welfare.

Miss Charlotte Haag, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Haag of 280 Hemlock street, and Mr. Elliott Irving Peterson, son of Representative and Mrs. Arnold Peterson of 207 Highland boulevard, were married Thursday night at the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church in East New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mohan of 275 Clinton avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Kathleen Mohan, to Mr. William Orme Hiltabide, Jr., of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Killen of 374 Park place sailed last week for Europe.

The marriage of Miss Helen Sands Nestrand, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Wells Catlin of 207 Green avenue, to Mr. Sherwood Hubbell will take place next Saturday. Mr. Hubbell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Loring Hubbell of Garden City, L. I. He was graduated from Williams College and served as a First Lieutenant of aviation during the war. Miss Nestrand was graduated from Adelphi Academy.

Mrs. James William McLaren of 622 Second street is at her country home, Brambley Farm, Setauket, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan W. Dow of 184 Columbia Heights are at their country home, The Crossing, New Milford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sheffield, Jr., are at Hot Springs, Va.

A reunion supper was given in the alumni rooms of Packer Institute Thursday night by the class of 1914.

The committal charges were composed of Mrs. Archibald D. McKelge, secretary; Mrs. Schuyler Bergen, Miss Martha McGarvey, Mrs. Earle T. Munkenbeck, Mrs. Harold C. Parsons and Mrs. William Kouwenhoven.

Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Schaffner of 121 Jerusalem street entertained for Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Joseph H. Bessert at the Hotel Bessert roof on Tuesday night.

Mrs. E. Clifford Place is the new president of the Urban Club. Vice-presidents for the ensuing year are Mrs. Theodore Hanson, Mrs. Joseph W. Tuttle and Mrs. Edwin G. Warner. Mrs. Fenwick W. Ritchie is the recording secretary. Mrs. Chester Foster is corresponding secretary.

Mrs. K. C. Bates assistant, Mrs. George C. Fischer treasurer, Mrs. Eugene B. Magnus auditor, Mrs. Samuel H. Olmstead member at large and Mrs. Andrew J. Perry secretary.

The new officers of the Women's Club elected at the annual meeting include Mrs. Louis Dean Spier, president; Mrs. Edward H. May, Mrs. Edgar D. Sealy and Mrs. Ferry Getz, vice-presidents; Mrs. George Watson, recording secretary; Miss Wilhelmina Beckus, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. William K. Woodward, treasurer. The new members of the board will be Mrs. Phonor J. Eder, Mrs. John M. McMullen, Mrs. Beatrice E. Eno and Mrs. William P. Saybolt. New chairmen are Mrs. Eder, current readings; Mrs. Augustine J. Wilson, philanthropic, and Mrs. E. M. Guyon, music. Committee chairmen include Mrs. Walter S. Mayer, Mrs. Donald G. Clark, Mrs. John J. Sheahan, Mrs. Virgil Miller, Mrs. John A. McFarlan, Mrs. Edgar D. Sealy, Mrs. George Smart, Mrs. L. Galloway and Mrs. Charles H. Scamwell.

Mrs. George J. Bernbach and daughter, Miss Florence Louise Bernbach, have come from Denver, Col., to join Mr. Bernbach, who has taken over the management of the inn. Among other new arrivals are Col. George Montgomery, Jefferson C. Grinnalds, secretary of the zoning commission of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Johnston and family of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. G. Burke Johnston of Uniontown, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Hagar, Mrs. Lillie Rosecrans of Boston, and Mrs. Harold Gratin.

Miss Marie Pauley, who has been visiting in Marion, Ind., returned this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strouse spent last week at the Hollywood Hotel, West End, Long Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Elissa C. Tower, who spent the winter at the Ritz-Carlton, have gone to Southampton, L. I., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sheffield, Jr., are at Hot Springs, Va.

Bride in the Long Island Colony

MRS. WILLIAM HART SMITH FORMERLY MISS MABELLE TELLER, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM R. TELLER OF BAYSIDE, L. I.

Princeton, where she chaperoned Miss Elizabeth Ryan at the annual meeting of the Princeton University dance.

Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Edna Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Thompson of Walker road, West Orange, and Mr. Charles Edwin Brundage, also of West Orange, which was performed Thursday, May 25, by the Rev. William Rock, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, Montclair.

There were no attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Mantion B. Metcalf, Jr., of Center street, Orange, have taken a farmhouse at Rumson for the summer. Mrs. Metcalf was an attendant yesterday at the marriage of Miss Virginia Hay of Newark and Rumson to Mr. Edward Horsman Van Sice.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Johnson of Oakwood avenue, Orange, and Mr. T. McCurdy Marsh of East Highland avenue, East Orange, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip N. Miller of Irving avenue, South Orange, with their children spent the week end and Memorial Day tenting at Lake Waywayanda. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will build a new home in Llewellyn Park.

Mr. Harry V. Osborne of Mosswood avenue, Orange, a member of the Public Utility Commission, with his son, Harry V. Osborne, Jr., went to Meganick, Me., last week with a party of friends on a fishing trip.

Mrs. Richard Wayne Parker, wife of Representative Parker, has returned to her home in Hutton Park, West Orange. Mrs. Parker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Thomas. She had intended to visit Europe, but has postponed the proposed trip indefinitely.

To close its social season, the Junior Assembly of the Washington Society, East Orange, gave an informal dance on Monday night at the club house. Dr. John W. Mooney was assisted by the committee in charge, consisting of Misses Katharine Wallace, Blanche Hurley, Helen Stalm, Pearl McBride and Bernard McGovern. Mrs. John K. Phillips, president of the society, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. M. E. Francis and Mrs. Seymour B. Everett, of the executive board of the department.

Mrs. H. R. Pickenbach, of 56 Northfield road, West Orange, gave a garden party on Friday afternoon to aid the West Orange Community House.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bruyn, of Tiliou road, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Davis, of Turrell avenue, South Orange, are attending the exercises at Knox School, Cooperstown, where their daughters, Miss Betty Bruyn and Miss Lydia Davis, are members of the graduating class.

A new sun room at the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, South Orange, the gift of Mr. Sidney M. Colgate of Orange, was opened for the first time Monday night. A dinner, to observe the occasion, was attended by about 100. Mrs. A. W. S. Cochran was head of the committee in charge of decorations and among those who entertained at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. David L. George, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Mingle, Mrs. Richard M. Colgate, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beaver Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Munn.

Mrs. Horace H. Smith of 22 Webster place, East Orange, will attend the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Chautauque, June 20 to 23, as delegate from the Women's Club of Orange. Mrs. Winthrop E. Scarritt of South Orange, president of the club, and Mrs. Charles B. Yardley of East Orange will also attend.

Mrs. Albert Dittig, who was Miss Elsie Brown, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brown, of 11 Greenwood place, East Orange. She has been touring the south since her marriage. Mr. Dittig, who was detained in New Orleans on business, will rejoin his wife in East Orange this week.

Mrs. R. D. Anderson of Cleveland street, Orange, has returned from

Summer Season
Opens for Clubs
on Staten Island

Cricket and Tennis Club Has Dance After Day of Sport.

THE summer social season at the Staten Island Cricket and Tennis Club officially opened on Saturday when the club celebrated its fifth anniversary with a jubilee. The splendid weather brought out all those keen for sports as well as those to whom the dancing and music appealed most. The Staten Island Ladies Club, connected with the club, also began its summer activities Saturday, and many of Staten Island's best women tennis players were seen on the courts.

Guest night was observed by the Woman's Literary Club of Port Richmond last Thursday evening. Two little plays were given—"Fourteen," in the cast of which were Mrs. H. M. Horn, Miss Helen Britton and Mrs. T. L. Gessel, and "Joint Owners in Spain," in which were Mrs. W. Seguin, Miss Edith Kellogg, Mrs. J. J. Wood and Mrs. L. Maki. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Robert Moller; Miss Letta played several violin selections and Prof. Schaefer played a number of piano solos.

The Clifton Ladies' Tennis Club held its annual meeting recently in the clubhouse at Arrochar. Mrs. Herbert S. Tenney was elected president, Mrs. Leighton Peebles vice-president and Mrs. Walter Fredericks secretary and treasurer.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Mona McIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. McIntyre of 587 Madison avenue, formerly of Staten Island, to Mr. William Sherlock Dupree. The wedding will take place in Shanghai, China, where Mr. Dupree has his business interests.

The officers for the current year recently elected at the annual meeting of the Staten Island Woman's Club are: President, Mrs. Will Hamilton Baker; first vice-president, Mrs. John A. Franklin; second vice-president, Mrs. E. Alfred Errington; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. A. Jarvis; day nursery department, Mrs. Robert W. Gardner; literary and musical department, Mrs. Flora A. Eatenon; social service department, Mrs. John H. Greaves.

The chairmen of the following committees read annual reports: Day nursery department, Mrs. William B. Wilkinson; social service department, Mrs. Walter Mayer; the Fox Hills Hospital committee, Mrs. Frank Skinner; Sea View Hospital work, Miss Mae Davidson; service committee, Mrs. James O. Marriott; Woman's Club magazine subscription agency, Mrs. Frank Mebane; literary and musical department, Mrs. Will Hamilton Baker; house committee, Mrs. Oscar Sperle; doorkeeper, Mrs. Charles A. Ingalls; renting committee, Mrs. Harry F. Towle; building committee, Mrs. E. Alfred Errington; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John A. Franklin; membership committee, Mrs. E. Alfred Errington; hospital committee, Mrs. James C. Marriott; and decoration committee, Mrs. Asper Schwing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dier Weyman of Fingerboard Road have had as their guest for the week end, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Thomas. Mr. Thomas left for France on La Touraine Thursday.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Ryan to Mr. James T. Rourke has been announced recently. Miss Ryan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ryan of Bement avenue.

Among the Staten Islanders who sailed for Germany recently were Mrs. John Gans, Sr., of Howard avenue; Mr. and Mrs. John Gans, Jr., with their two sons of Richmond Turnpike; and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Detjen of Sunnyside Terrace, Stapleton.

The Notre Dame Alumnae Association will have a dinner in Convent Hall on Grymes Hill June 22. There are to be a number of prominent speakers.

The James S. Slosson Post, No. 22, of the American Legion, will hold a block party on Suyvestant place, between Wall street and Hamilton avenue, on Friday evening, June 16, and Saturday afternoon and evening, June 17.

Dr. and Mrs. Walker Washington of Totenville are spending some time in Virginia at the former home of Dr. Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaefer, Jr., formerly of Staten Island and now of Washington, D. C., have been entertaining Mrs. August Landau and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaefer, Sr.

Mrs. A. I. Fisher of Totenville has gone to Ocean Grove for the summer.

Mrs. J. Tinsley of St. Paul's avenue has sailed for England, where she expects to remain until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McKee have gone to the country place, Barbers Hedge, in Twilight Park, where they will remain for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. R. Love McKee and Mr. J. Harvey Bostwick were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. McKee over the holiday week. Mr. Bostwick spent part of the past season with Mr. and Mrs. George Clasco of Grymes Hill.

Mrs. Sydney Reeves, who spent the winter with her brother in Texas, has returned to the St. Mark's Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. William Evans of Hope avenue, Clifton, have their daughter, Mrs. Emil Berger, visiting them.

The Sigma Epsilon Phi held a private informal dance at the Woman's Club Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Akerman and their family have taken a party of friends, including Mr. Arthur Akerman and Mrs. Louise Hanlon, on a motor trip to Richmond, Va., to see the pageant there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilder and George Wilder, Jr., of Stapleton spent the holidays in Foulney, Mass. With them were Mr. and Mrs. J. Nehr.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Atwell of Port Richmond have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert Atwell of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Shriver and their son are occupying one of the apartments on Tyson street, New Brighton.